Announcements

Hurricane Relief Collection—Thank You!
On September 15 and 22, in conjunction with the other parishes of our Diocese, we held a collection for IOCC to benefit those affected by hurricanes in the southern part of our great country. We collected $921; with the addition of $79 from our parish Charity Fund, we sent $1000 to IOCC. May our donations be for the health and salvation of all those it will assist!

No Sunday School class on September 29. The next class will be October 6. Fr. David will continue talking about the theme of Baptism, and have a bit of “show and tell” for our students regarding this sacrament!

Information on the “Deanery Day Dinner” is included in this bulletin. All DDD Donors and guests are invited. A basket for free-will offerings will be present. Your gifts benefit Camp Nazareth! Let Fr. David know by Sunday, October 6th.

Diocesan Yearbook/ACRY Annual Sponsors and Memorial Listings: If you would like to include your name and/or the names of your loved ones in the 2020 Diocesan Yearbook/ACRY Annual, please visit the church office.

ACRY “Lots o’ Luck” calendars are available in the church office for $25/calendar. Support the National ACRY with your purchase!

Our 2019 Chinese Auction will take place on Sunday, November 24. We are asking our parishioners to donate prizes for the auction. This year, we are requesting that prizes be worth at least $10.00. Monetary donations are also accepted.

Letters to solicit prizes are now available in the fellowship hall. Please remember to sign the list indicating where you will be requesting a donation, in order to avoid duplication.
Thoughts on Stewardship
By Dan Hromyak

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..." - Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control." - 2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Liturgy or when we attend a parish event. Being a good steward requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything, all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

Sick Calls can be made at any time. Please phone the rectory (724-346-4457) when a family member is admitted to the hospital, or to request a home visit. Hospitals do not call to alert the parish when someone is admitted.

Marriages are solemnized on Saturdays or Sundays. Circumstances may require a dispensation from the diocesan bishop. Consult the pastor at least six months in advance and before any plans have been made for the wedding reception. Marriages cannot be celebrated during the fasting seasons of the church, or on Fridays.

Baptisms are usually scheduled on Saturdays or Sundays. Consult the pastor. Two godparents (godfather and godmother) are required, at least one of whom must be a practicing Orthodox Christian in good standing at an Orthodox parish, and the other (at least) a practicing, baptized Christian.

Church Funerals are, under ordinary circumstances, provided for practicing Orthodox Christians who are current in their spiritual and material obligations to the parish; otherwise, the funeral service is conducted at the funeral home. The Church does not permit cremation.

Parishioners in “good standing” are those Orthodox Christians who, as members of Saint John’s Orthodox Church, strive to live according to the teachings of the Orthodox Church; participate in the life of the parish through regular church attendance, regular reception of Holy Communion and periodic Holy Confession (and receive these sacraments no less than once a year); if married, having been married in the Orthodox Church; and financially support the parish (especially through an annual “pledge”).

Prospective members and returning members are asked to fill out an application form, copies of which are available in the church office.
